Once you sign up it securely links your credit card or cards with payment through Stripe-the same payment processor used by Amazon, Facebook, Lyft and others. The average yearly contribution equates to $15-20 annually. Once signed on you never have to do another thing, it's all automatic. You can download the app for iPhone, Android or create an account on the Web. Take a look at the 90 second video below that explains how it works.
