UPDATE - 4:00pm - STANDARDBREDS AT RISK

Millstone Township, NJ - Nov. 12, 2017 - Twenty-four horses are still without homes, but an extension was negotiated until 4pm, Monday, Nov. 13, 2017.

The hope is that at least half of those needing homes will have luck by late morning. "Deciding on who stays and who ships is just not something anyone wants to do," said Tammy Cailliou, SRF's Administrator. "We continue to ask for tax-deductible donations, hope that there are less horses left without homes by 4pm tomorrow, and that enough is raised to extend ourselves to help them. Paying the "bail" is nothing compared to shipping, quarantine, veterinary care, farrier, worming, rehabilitation, and training, and carrying them into spring 2018. Please be as generous as you can so none are left out.

- To donate to help a horse:

- Whether you home one of these in need or adopt a horse from SRF see AdoptaHorse.org, it will free up a space for these. Many are on the website but not all.
- To see all the horses at risk, visit our website: AdoptaHorse.org/HorseatRisk

If you have any questions at all please contact Tammy:
email: SRFhorsesandkids@gmail.com or call 732-446-4422

SRF asks you to forward this email to others as well to encourage help.

SRF is different than any other organization:

- Helps Standardbreds exclusively;
- Does not limit help to only adoptable horses;
- Follows up for life on a semi-annual basis so no horse is ever at risk again;

-Never relinquishes ownership, requiring any adopted horse in need of another home to be returned to SRF.
