SRF Golf Auction Opens May 13

The Standardbred Retirement Foundation's (SRF) annual charity golf outing on Wednesday, May 18, 2016 has great support from sponsors, golfers, and donors of great items. If you cannot physically be present and wish to bid on any of the items, they will be available for bidding on SRF's website AdoptaHorse.org starting in on Friday, May 13, 2016. Phone bids will be welcomed for some items as well. In past years items included a Pennsbury Track Trainer, a harness from Finn Tack, Disney Hopper tickets, starting gate rides, stake services, veterinary services, a full body scan from Mid-Atlantic Equine, Hogan Equine Clinic services, Yankee tickets, a tour of NBC Studios, fine wine and much more SRF appreciates sponsors for the event, and gifts for the auctions and raffles such as tickets to sporting events, services, vacations, gift cards and any other similar items. Hosted by Knob Hill Country Club in Manalapan, NJ, SRF's 24th annual outing is a very popular event sells out every year. It is an important fundraiser helping to care for 208 trotters and pacers, all hoping for homes, and the following up of 27 years of adoptions. Unlike any other charity, SRF has retirees pensioned who have served owners, trainers, drivers and racing well, and their care depends on the support SRF receives.

To golf, sponsor, donate an item, or get help with bidding and for more information contact Tammy at 732 446 4422, or browse SRF's website at AdoptaHorse.org on May 13th when the auction begins. SRF is a 501c3 non-profit; gifts and sponsorships are tax-deductible.
